4. CPAC proposal update
  - a. Dr. Jon Kerner, Chair of Primary Prevention Action Group & Scientific Advisor for the Knowledge Translation component of CPAC is now involved in the review of the Manitoba proposal as it fits under his mandate – He has not contacted Donna yet.
  - b. In discussions with Dr. Heather Bryant and Jessica Hill Donna has learned that they are still interested in the “transferability experiment” concept – we may want to look at another jurisdiction that is not as advanced as New Brunswick (NB) is in their healthy living work
  - c. The question for PPHL is can we convince CPAC to support our mutual learning experiment or do we want to reframe our proposal to a transferability experiment with another jurisdiction.
  - d. The CCMB Board has invited Jessica Hill for a meeting and PPHL has arranged to meet with her on Friday, Nov. 21, 2008 in the morning.

Donna will articulate the expected objective of this meeting for Jessica Hill. Discussion ensued.

- e. Discussion occurred about a possible relationship with CBPRE with respect to the CPAC project.
- f. Next Steps:
  - i. Donna will follow up with Dr. Jon Kerner re: the status of our proposal
  - ii. Mark will follow up with CBRPE with respect to their new strategic plan
  - iii. Donna will call Barb Riley at CBRPE to determine if they would be interested in developing communities of practice based on local needs
  - iv. A teleconference may be held prior to the next Executive Meeting (Nov 19) to discuss follow up from Donna's and Mark's calls
- g. Discussion held about possible reasons for the fact that this proposal has been delayed. Mark will make contact with his peers in NB to see if they are interested in being a partner in this initiative. Anyone else who has contacts in NB is encouraged to make similar calls.
