Beyond the Hurt is a national prevention program of the Red Cross that builds the capacity of adults, youth, families, schools and communities to stop bullying and harassment.

Through the training, adults are able to:

- Train a team of youth to facilitate bullying prevention workshops to their peers and younger youth
- Incorporate bullying education into curriculum & lesson planning
- Share their increased understanding of bullying policies & procedures with colleagues and administrators
- Explore and guide awareness initiatives within the school and community

A partnership with the Canadian Red Cross includes:

- Two day workshop:
  - Day 1: Exploring the issue of bullying & harassment
  - Day 2: Discussion of policies & procedures, action planning & goal setting
- Teaching resources to incorporate into lesson plans
- Training PowerPoint, lesson plan and activity toolkit to train youth facilitators
- Workshop PowerPoint and activity toolkit to support youth facilitation
- Ongoing support and updated resources

COST: $500.00*

"Bullying stops 57% of the time within 10 seconds, when a peer has the courage to intervene."
