Healthy Youth Relationships Partnership Training

Promoting Healthy Youth Relationships explores the dynamics of healthy relationships, the warning signs of unhealthy relationships, the forms of assault and the ecological framework for relationship violence.

Through the training, staff are able to:
- Deliver the program in a workshop format or modular format to youth ages 12 and up
- Explore and guide awareness initiatives within the school and community

This program empowers young people to identify:
- Healthy dating relationships and positive communication strategies
- Signs of an abusive dating relationship
- Gender-based violence, homophobia, sexual harassment and inappropriate sexual behaviour
- The legal definitions and consequences of assault
- Consent laws, protection resources and reporting procedures
- Where to find support and community resources

A partnership with the Canadian Red Cross includes:
- A three day in-person training session
- Workshop PowerPoint, teaching resources and activity toolkit to support the delivery of the program
- Ongoing support and updated resources

Cost: $400.00*
